

DAVID MOORE
LISA AND JOHN

9 MARCH – 22 APRIL 2018

LONDON
GALLERY WEST

DAVID MOORE LISA AND JOHN

The Lisa and John project activates David Moore's archive of photography work Pictures from the Real World, Colour Photographs 1987-88, a documentary series of working class communities in Derby, performing a critical reassessment of the work's purpose and location through intervention and collaboration with those photographed in the series.

PRIVATE VIEW

Thursday 8 March 2018, 5 – 8pm

ARTIST'S TALK

Auditorium, Harrow Campus

Wednesday 14 March, 1 – 2pm

David Moore discusses the Lisa and John Project. In conjunction with Westminster Photography Forum.

PERFORMANCE

Regent Street Cinema, 309 Regent Street, Marylebone W1B 2UW

Friday 20 April, 5:15pm and 7pm

A 45-minute theatrical play, written and directed by David Moore, using actors to play the couple. The script has been devised by transcripts of interviews with Lisa and John, discussing and drawing on principles of verbatim and immersive theatre, and improvisational rehearsal techniques.

Book online at lisa-and-john-slideshow.eventbrite.co.uk

OPENING TIMES

Daily 9am – 5pm

VENUE

London Gallery West

The Forum, University of Westminster

Watford Road, Harrow, HA1 3TP

T: +44 (0)20 7911 5970

E: m.maziere@westminster.ac.uk

westminster.ac.uk/london-gallery-west

🚶 Northwick Park, Metropolitan line.

Pay-and-display parking available.

Image credit: © David Moore, 1988

UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER

LONDON
GALLERY WEST

BELFAST EXPOSED

ual: london college
of communication